

KOI INVESTMENT PARTNERS
INTERNATIONAL

The Company

Koi Investment Partners International is a boutique investment management company focused on systematic research and investments. Our company specializes in developing proprietary models, algorithms and trading strategies by leveraging advanced mathematics and artificial intelligence (AI) research.

Internship (2022)

The Role

- Provide supports to the research team that include carry out studies on data research, identify and solve problems by analyzing and deriving insights from large and complex sets of data, and develop support tools for models
- Graduate students or Undergraduates going into year 3 or above on degree in STEM
- Basic skills in Python Programming
- Financial knowledge is not necessary
- 3 months contract (from June - August)